

Figure 1: Wildlife compound where Class I and other wildlife were housed

Fig. 2: Tiger cage within perimeter fence

Fig. 3: Trailer used to house and maintain wildlife and domestic animals

Fig. 4: Bird cages and glass tank housing a Savannah monitor

Fig. 5: Albino Burmese python in Vision Cage on glass

Fecal waste and shed in cage and (Ball python in glass tank on top to right)

Fig. 6: Multiple piles of dried feces within tiger cage

Fig. 7: Burmese python cage with multiple piles of dried feces.

Fig. 8: Overgrown weeds in the cougar cage

Fig. 9: Empty indoor cage previously housing monkeys with fecal wastes covering floor

Fig. 10: Sink hole at SW corner of wildlife compound leaving gap under perimeter fence.

Fig. 11: White tiger with protruding hip bones